Ellen is a paralegal who provides assistance to the firm's real estate and development practice group.

Ellen primarily works on property acquisitions, entitlements, and due diligence, as well as analyzing, drafting, and redrafting documentation for the firm's developer and builder clients.

Her main focus is to be accessible and ready to actively listen to clients' concerns, issues, and problems, and she draws upon the firm's deep resources to efficiently and effectively respond to the clients' needs.
