Wendy works as a paralegal on probate estate and trust administration, estate planning, and related business matters supporting MPS's Trusts and Estates practice group in our Schaumburg office. Working closely with the partners, she assists with drafting estate planning and gifting documents, probate documents and filings, client and advisor communications, and administering trusts and asset transfers which includes obtaining valuations and appraisals in conjunction with estate tax return filings. Wendy works with attorneys and families to ensure the estate and trust administration process is completed efficiently, timely and to the client's expectations and satisfaction.

With more than 30 years of experience, Wendy particularly excels in the close relationships she has built with clients. Every interaction includes a personal touch and dedicated customer service. High net worth families and individuals rely on Wendy to assure them that their planning and administration activities are handled smoothly, efficiently, and promptly.

Wendy values the people, culture, and work environment at MPS. Outside of the office, Wendy enjoys spending time with her family and traveling.
